

Wallace Glade Rounady

Glady's Rounady

Glady's Sarah Dent Rounady, died April 24, 1989, in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Born September 28, 1912, to Benjamin Thomas and Sarah Hughes Dent, in Wales, England. Married Wallace Glade Rounady, October 19, 1945, marriage later solemnized in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. Lat-er divorced. Glady died October 19, 1978. Glady's served as an ar-mament inspector, during World War II. Became U.S. citizen in 1954. Lived and worked in Lynon, Utah, before moving to Salt Lake City. Later worked caring for the ill and aged. Served in many church positions. Had a ready love for Moses and returned sev-eral times to visit relatives and friends. Glady's had a wonderful sense of humor and we will miss her smile. Her family and friends will always remember and be in-spired by her courage and her kindness and compassion for those less fortunate. We will miss her.

Survived by a son, Dent Wal-lace Rounady, Salt Lake City; sister Doris Phillips, England; preceded in death by a son, Hughes Glady Rounady, and two brothers, Jack and G. E. Dent. Also survived by many nephews and nieces.

Funeral services will be held Fri-day, April 28, 1989, 12 noon, at the Butler 17th Ward, 7035 Nuree, Salt Lake City. Interment Salt Lake City Cemetery, Cannon Monument, First Division.
